STOCKS WERE HEAVY

ENTIRE LIST UNDER THE INFLU-ENCE OF THE CHICAGO STRIKE.

Speculators Not Willing to Take Risks for the Present-At Indianapolis Grain Is in Demand.

At New York, yesterday, money on call was easy at 1 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 365 per cent. Sterling exchange was firm, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.88% for demand and $4.87% for sixty days; posted rates, $4.88@4.89; commercia) bills, $4.861/4. Silver certificates, 64665e.

London, 28 11-16d. Total sales of stocks were 102,087 shares, including: American Sugar, 22,800; Burling-

3,200; St. Paul, 8,700. The speculation yesterday was under the influence of the labor trouble in the West, and while generally heavy in tone, was occasionally given temporary strength by the receipt of encouraging advices from Chicago. Among the more conservative opexators there was a disposition to do little any business pending the result of the ffort to inaugurate a general strike of all the trades unions of Chicago to-morrow. Press and private dispatches were eagerly watched for on the exchange, and the good or bad tidings were instantly reflected in the course of prices. Sugar opened 4 higher, and then, under free selling, broke sharply 11/2, to 951/2, rallied 11/8, and reacting % at the close. Chicago Gas was subjected to a bear raid, based on the bellef that the general strike which is threatened must result in serious injury to the company's interest. Heavy blocks of the stock were thrown on the market, breaking the price 21%, to 72%, the last being the lowest price of the day. Of the granger group, Burlington & Quincy was weakest, being sold largely on Boston orders, based on anticipated decrease in earnings. The shares receded 11/4, to 73%, closing only 1/8 above the bottom figure. St. Paul was fairly well supported and lost only %, with 1/8 recovery. Rock Island sold down 11/6 and rallied while Northwestern lost 4, without a recovery. The market was sluggish during the afternoon, becoming heavier as the day advanced, and closing weak. Wheeling & Lake Erle preferred showed a decline of 1%; Louisville & New Albany, 1%, and the general list 1/40%. Exceptions were Pullman, Alton & Terre Haute and American Tobacco, which each rose 1, and Distilling, Denver & Rio Grande preferred. Canada Pacific and Lake Shore, which made gains of 1/46%. The bond market was, in the main, weak, and closed irregular, the leading changes being: Declines-Ohio Southern fours, 5 Oregon Short Line consols fives, 3; Missouri, Kansas & Eastern firsts, 1; St. Paul terminal fives, 114; St. Paul M. & M seconds, Kansas & Texas fours, Oregon Improvement fives, St. Louis & San Francisco fives, St. Louis & San Francisco sixes, and Texas Pacific seconds, 1 per cent. Advances-Louisville & Nashville P. & A. firsts, 214; Fort Wayne & Chicago seconds, 1%; Green Bay, Winona & St. Paul incomes, 1%; San Antonio & Aransas Pass fours, 1%; Louisville & New Albany consols, Minnesota & St. Louis seconds, St. Joe & Grand Island firsts, 1. Government bonds were steady. State bonds were inactive.

LOCAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

Indianapolis Doing Fairly Well, Considering the Strike.

Freer movement in freights is helping business somewhat on the wholesale streets and on Commission row. Grocers yesterday had a busy day, as did druggists and hardware men. Iron dealers were doing more than for several days past. On Commission row trade was active, receipts of fruits and vegetables large and prices lower. Good cabbage was sold yesterday as low as 25 cents a barrel. Irish potatoes were weaker and berries, aside from huckleberries, which have just come on the market, are lower. There is a firmer tone to butter, eggs and poultry. There is an active demand for poultry East and the home demand is large. The hide market is duil. In the wool market little is doing. The local grain market was more active yesterday with a prospect that the roads would be in shape in a day or two to handle business. Some increase in receipts is already noticeable. It is believed that a good deal would be doing now in the cereal market, but for the strike. Track bids yesterday ruled as follows: Wheat-No. 2 red, 5014c; No. 3 r.d. 48c. NEW PUBLICATIONS.

(From the Bowen-Merrill Company.) A volume which is likely to attract considerable attention by reason of its title as well as its author is "Footprints of the Jesuits," by Hon. R. W. Thompson, of this State. It is known to Colonel Thompson's friends that he has given much study and thought to the relation of the Catholic Church to political government, and especially to the history and principles of the Society of Jesus, commonly called Jesuits. The present work treats first of the history of the Jesuits in their dealings with other countries, and, second, of the present attitude of the Catholic Church towards this country and the government of the United States. The author believes that the church is constitutionally opposed to the American public school system, and that the doctrine of papal infallibility is inconsistent with free government, and he argues these propositions with his accustomed ingenuity and force. The work is accompanied by a frontispiece portrait of the author. Cloth, 500 pages, $1.75. Cincinnati: Cranston & Curts.

Professor Hjalmar Hjorth Boyesen, though a foreigner by birth, has made a close and sympathetic study of American life and character. "Literary and Social Silhouettes" is a collection of short essays by him, several of which are on the line indicated, while others are on literary topics. The initial essay is entitled "Types of American Women," and then follow: "German and American Women," American Novelist and His Public," "The Progressive Realism of American Fiction," "The Hero in Fiction" and others. All are written in a sprightly style and are worth reading. Cloth, ornamental, $1. New York: Harper & Brothers.

Mrs. Humphrey Ward's latest novel. "Marcella," has been noticed at some length in the news columns of the Journal. The deliberate judgment of discriminating readers is confirmatory of the first impression that it is a strong and interesting story, a fit and worthy companion in all respects of "Robert Elsmere" and "David Grieve." The authorized edition of "Mar-cella" in this country is published by Macmillan & Co., 66 Fifth avenue, New York. It is an edition which all the admirers of Mrs. Ward will wish to have, being well printed on good paper in two volumes, bound in cloth, with a portrait of the author. Price, $2.

D. Appleton & Co. publish "Cleopatra," a romance translated from the German of Georg Ebers. It is an historical novel, a field in which the author excels by his skill in investing history with the glamour of romance. In this work he presents a picture of the character of Cleopatra which is entirely new, and, as he claims, much more truthful than the traditional one. He represents her as not only a beautiful woman but possessed of rare gifts of intellect and incapable of a base action. The work of translating is done by Mary J. Safford. Two volumes, cloth,

"A Prodigal in Love," by Emma Wolf, is a love story emotional enough to enlist the sympathy of the reader and with dramatic movement enough to be interesting. The motive of the story is a loveless marriage, and much is made of certain elements in the character of the husband that call for the exercise of all the wife's patience and forbearance. Miss Wolf is a Western woman and the scene of the novel is laid in San Francisco. Cloth, ornamental, $1.25. New York: Harper & Brothers.

One of the best books on Russia that has appeared recently is "The Empire of the Tsars and the Russians," by Anatole Leroy-Beaulieu." It is a picture of the political and social life of Russia, drawn by a Frenchman, from a French and, therefore, an impartial standpoint. Students of Russian politics, government and administration will find it a valuable guide, and readers of contemporaneous history will find it interesting as well as instructive. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons.

In "The Potter's Thumb," a novel by Flora Annie Steel, one finds what seems to be a truthful picture of East India life. The author shows intimate knowledge of social conditions in that country, and, as she treats the subject from a native point of view, her presentation of it is novel and interesting. Besides the pictures of Indian life, which are instructive, the story is cleverly conceived and well written, though it would not suffer from condensation. Cloth, ornamental, $1.50. New York: Har-

Olive Thorne Miller has for some time past been a recognized authority on birds and bird life, and in "Our Home Pets" she appears also as a lover of dogs and cats. The book treats in a pleasant, discursive way of birds, dogs and cats and tells how to keep them well and happy and get the most pleasure out of them. Mrs. Miller does not treat animals from a scientific standpoint, but rather as her personal friends. Cloth, $1.25.

"Carlotta's Intended and Other Stories." by Ruth McEnery Stuart, includes the following stories: "Carlotta's Intended." "Bud Zunt's Mail," "Christmas Geese," "Caesar," "Aunt Delhpi's Dilemma," and "Duke's Chirstmas," and the collection closes with three poems entitled "Rose," "Winnie" and "Voices." The stories are fairly good and the verses are rhymes in negro dialect. Cloth, $1.50. Harper & Brothers.

Persons who would become intelligent theater goers and who have some taste for theatrical criticism will find a good deal to interest them in "Acting and Actors, Elocution and Elocutionists," by Alfred Ayres. The author is a dramatist and actor, a close student of the subjects he deals with and an intelligent and conscientious critic. Ornamented cloth, $1.25. New York: D. Appleton & Co.

"My Paris Notebook," by the author of "An Englishman in Paris," contains reminiscences of a long residence in Paris, beginning in 1855. It is written in a rambling, gossipv style, and while it is rather pleasant reading, much of the information and many of the anecdotes have a sort of second-hand flavor. Cloth, $1.25. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott Company,

Capt. Charles King has edited a volume of soldier tales published by the J. B. Lippincott Company, Philadelphia, to which is given the title of "The Initial Experience" by Captain King himself. The other stories, of which there are eleven, are by different authors, most of them army officers, and are all readable, though of unequal merit. Cloth, $1. The latest additions to "Harper's Black and White Series" are "Three Weeks in Politics," a clever sketch by John Kendrick Bangs; "A Five-o'clock Tea," and "The Mouse Trap," two farces by W. D. Howells, which are light and thin as water gruel. The volumes in this series are bound in uniform style. Price, 50 cents

The latest addition to the Unknown Library are "Chaperoned," anonymous, and "Wanted, a Copyist," by W. H. Brearley. The first is a clever story told in the enistolary form, and the second a series of character sketches developed in logue. Price, 50 cents each. Cassell Publishing Company. G. P. Putram's Sons publish a little volume of poems by George H. Stockbridge, entitled "Balder, the Poet." There are not many noems in the volume, and they are earnest, thoughtful and suggestive. Cloth, $1. "An Interloper," a novel by Frances Mary Peard, author of "Catherine," etc., is a well-written story of French provincial life, Cloth, ornamental, $1.25.

WHEAT FALLS

HEAVY CABLE NEWS AND DULLNESS

Moderate Buying, While Provis-

CHICAGO, July 10 .- It is not often that such general indifference is displayed by the speculative crowd as was shown today. The strikers held them off on one side, and on the other they were paralyzed by the uncertainty concerning the government report. Prices underwent very little change except in provisions, which made another moderate advance. Wheat opened 1/2c, eased off 1/3c, became very quiet, changed but little, and the close showed but 14c loss. Private cables were rather conflicting, some quoting wheat firm but inactive and others 1/2c lower. The trade was evidently looking for a bullish government the blockade at the yards and a scarcity of offerings firmed provisions up to-day. September pork is 5c higher, September

THE INDIANAPOLIS

Daily, Sunday and Weekly

The Journal is first of all a newspaper. Its primary object is to publish the news, and to procure this it spares no pains or expense. Besides the service of the Associated Press, which covers foreign countries as well as the entire United States, it has a corps of special correspondents, who give attention to those events and occurrences that are likely to be of particular interest to the Indiana public.

Was established for the purpose of looking after matters in which the State and its people are concerned, and is under the management of a gentleman well acquainted with the local business and political issues.

It has a correspondent in every cown of importance in the State, and is constantly increasing its facilities for obtaining information from every quarter.

Its staff of city reporters is large, and its local departments are unexcelled. As a newspaper it is far better equipped than any other in the State, and welcomes comparison with its contemporaries in any and all of its departments. With all, it endeavors to be accurate and trustworthy, printing the news, whatever it may be, without personal or partisan bias.

THE SUNDAY

Is a paper that gives more attention to miscellaneous literature than the other editions, and contains in its sixteen, and often twenty, pages a variety of choice reading matter that satisfies the most exacting taste.

(Weekly Edition) is a large 56-column paper, carefully edited, with a special view to the wants of Indiana readers, both in its general and political news. Its subscription price, $1.00, with reduction to clubs, places it within the reach of all, and no campaign contribution can be so effective as when spent in furnishing this paper to readers who need Republican doctrine.
